Superdreadnaught Arizona Slips Into Water at Brooklyn

With the Pennsylvania and Arizona Afloat the United States Now Has the Two Greatest Superdreadnaughts in the World

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 19.—The new battleship Arizona was successfully launched at the Brooklyn Navy yard today. The Arizona shares with her sister ship, the Pennsylvania, recently launched at Newport News, the honor of being the world's largest battleship. The Arizona slipped into the water at 1:12 o'clock.

The state whose name the gleaming fighter will receive was represented by a distinguished delegation headed by Governor W. P. Hunt and Miss Esther Ross, the sponsor. They brought a carboy of water, the first spilled over the Roosevelt dam, to be used in an unusual double christening.

This was said to be the first vessel of the United States navy to be named with both wine and water. The decision to use champagne as well as water was made by Governor Hunt in the face of protests from both national and state women's Christian Temperance union leaders.

Secretary Daniels was here for the launching, as well as Admiral Fletcher, commander of the Atlantic fleet. Major General Wood, and many other army and navy officials and members of congress.

She went to the river with the wine and water of her christening trickling in rivulets down her bow. Two broken bottles, that swung, bound together, by a long red, white and blue cord of silk. Miss Esther Ross, of Prescott, Ariz., the sponsor, made a fair throw as the big hull quivered and slid slowly forward: the froth of the wine splattered her gown and the clothes of those in her party.

From the navy yard, black with a holiday throng, from the spans of the Brooklyn and Williamsburg bridges, from the docks and piers along the Manhattan and Brooklyn water fronts, from scores of craft hugging the far shore of the East river, and from every vantage point of window and house top in the vicinity, many tens of thousands saw the newest of American battleships glide down the ways.

The crowd tipped and looked expectantly at the big hulls as they slipped in playing "The Star Spangled Banner." The ship trembled and moved; the sponsor swung the two bottles. They broke, a deafening roar went up from the crowd, and in a few moments the battleship's stern was cleaving the waters of the East river.

She settled gracefully in the water, and carried forward by the weight of her 13,000 tons, swung far over in the river toward the Williamsburg bridge. A fleet of navy cutters, dwarfed by her towering form, hurried after her, drew alongside, made fast and soon started back with the newly captured vessel toward the navy yard docks.

From the grandstand the christening was witnessed by Secretary Daniels, army and navy officers and representatives of the city. New York, including Mayor Mitchell. After the launching Secretary Daniels was the guest at a luncheon at the navy yard.

WHITNEY LEADS DEXTER ONE UP AT EIGHTEENTH

SPEAKING OF CHAMPIONS

Whitney Goes Out in 41, Comes in With 38—Dexter Duplicates This Feat, Both Taking 79 in All

GREAT GALLERY WATCHES CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY

"Little Bob" Jones, Atlanta's Representative in Second Flight, Is Four Down to Clark at the Eighteenth

A great gallery followed the Nelson Whitney-Clark-Dexter match for the southern golf championship throughout the morning round. When the play started out on the afternoon round Whitney and Clark were the favorites. Whitney had won the championship four times before, but Dexter, the Dallas Tex., crack, once down for the eighteen holes.

Allowing Dexter five strokes for the second hole, where he failed to complete the play by picking his ball, the two players who tied for the low medal score in the qualifying round each had a 79 for the eighteen holes. Whitney came in with a 38 and Whitney's card showed a 41 for the first nine and Dexter's a 47, but Dexter's 47 was only one hole, the second, which Whitney made in the 18th.

Dexter's card showed that he had negotiated two holes in three and seven in four. Whitney's card showed that he had negotiated three and seven in four. Dexter's card, however, showed only one six, while the champion had two marked up against him. Six was the maximum number of strokes required by either for any one hole.

The cards for the morning round of eighteen holes follow:
Whitney—41
Dexter—47
Clark—45
Jones—45
Whitney—41
Dexter—47
Clark—45
Jones—45

At the finish of the first nine "Little Bob" Jones had a 19, Clark 20, Whitney 21, Dexter 22. Clark played brilliant golf, his score for the second nine being 34, which is two under par for the nine. Whitney's score for the second nine was 38, which is four over par for the nine. Clark's score for the second nine was 34, which is two under par for the nine. Whitney's score for the second nine was 38, which is four over par for the nine.

The result in the second, third and fourth flights of the championship play at the end of eighteen holes was:
Second Flight—Clark has Jones, 4 down.
Third Flight—Palmer has Munger, 4 down.
Fourth Flight—McAfee has Dunham, 5 down.

First Flight, Consolation—Root and Boudin are all square.
Second Flight, Consolation—Milton Dargan, Jr., has George Adair, 4 down.
Fourth Flight, Consolation—Eller has Ralphe, 4 down.

In the third consolation flight Rowan and Boudin were all square at the end of the first nine holes. In the fourth flight, Clark was 3 up on Ralphe at the end of the first nine holes.

PLAY BY PLAY.
The following is the detail of the first eighteen holes of the championship match between Whitney and Dexter.
FIRST HOLE—Whitney's drive was well down the course, but slipped to the edge of the green. He took three putts for a five. Dexter's drive was a cleek, getting an equal distance. His approach shot slipped into the rough. His approach overran the cup. It hit the green in two putts, squaring the hole.

SECOND HOLE—Dexter overshot the green into the hedge on the boundary. His ball was not playable in this position and he picked up, giving Whitney the hole. Whitney, up, giving Whitney the hole. Whitney, up, giving Whitney the hole.

THIRD HOLE—Both got long drives down the edge of the fairway and both dropped their second shots into the green. But Dexter took three putts and Whitney, who went down in two, Whitney, 2 up.

FOURTH HOLE—Whitney topped his drive, getting only about thirty yards. Whitney's second shot, which was a brassy out of the tall grass, put him about ten feet from the hole. Whitney, up again shot his brassy, but got it into the rough at the right of the green. It fell and came to a stop on top of a bunker in three and sunk a long putt for a four, winning the hole. Whitney, 1 up.

FIFTH HOLE—Whitney was on the green for an easy three. Dexter picked up the ball, the green was in a possible lie. Dexter chose a heavy niblick, climbed down into the ditch and laid the ball on the green with a maul. But Herbert finally disarmed him, and sent him to a neighbor for help. While they were gone Dexter obtained a revolver, and lying down on the bed beside his wife, shot himself through the heart.

Physicians had little hope for Mrs. Dexter's recovery.

NO RESPIRE FOR FRANK IF APPEAL IS DENIED

Will Hang Tuesday Unless Governor Commutes Him. Decision Expected Monday

Governor Slaton's decision on Leo Frank's petition for a commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment will not be made until some time Monday afternoon or Tuesday morning, and in the event he declines to commute the sentence, the execution will be carried out on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock when his court then convened.

These facts were stated by Governor Slaton himself Saturday morning. The governor said that he had not yet reached a decision; that he had spent the greater portion of the last three nights studying the record and considering the case, and that he expected to be engaged on this work practically all day Sunday, after which he would prepare the opinion which he would submit with his decision.

According to the sentence of the court Frank's execution is set for next Tuesday, and it is possible that the governor's decision will not be rendered until a short time before the hour fixed for the hanging.

Asked if he would grant a respite in the event he decided adversely on his petition for a commutation, Governor Slaton replied that he would not; that the judgment of a court should stand, and that he was prepared for death and he had ample time for such preparation.

Warrants of $2,000 each for the eleven district agricultural schools were signed by Governor Slaton Saturday and State Treasurer W. J. Spier will mail out the individual checks to these institutions early next week.

Four payments of $5,000 each have already been made to each of the schools, and the warrants drawn Saturday bring the totals up to $4,000 for each school. The state appropriates $10,000 a year to each of the eleven schools.

SCHOOL BOARDS TIED ON CO-EDUCATION PLAN

Business Departments of the High Schools

The board of education Friday blocked an effort to begin work on the proposed new street annex to the English Commercial High school, and so left the way open for inauguration of the mayor's plan of co-education in the business departments of the high schools.

The board requested the city health department—Mrs. J. P. Kennedy and Claude Smith—to prepare a plan of reorganization of the school medical department, which would tend to take complete supervision of this department from the superintendent of schools and place it under the health department of the city.

The board also inaugurated reforms in the heating and repair departments, following recommendations of a council investigating committee.

The board took a radical step when it requested City Building Inspector Ed May to take charge of the building of the Lucile avenue and the Milton avenue schools. This action was taken after board members had discussed what they say "looks like an agreement among the contractors bidding on the schools."

The board also took the preliminary steps toward combining all of municipal forces of the department in one building.

CREW STREET ANNEX. The most distinct clash of the meeting came over the proposal to proceed with the work on the Crew street annex authorized by council. This would merge the English Commercial High school and the business department of the Boys' High school, which was proposed by the mayor and is advocated by Mayor R. G. Gilpin and Aldine Chambers of the board.

Alderman Jesse W. Armistead made motion to proceed with the work on the annex and the vote was a tie, and by the rules of the board was lost. The vote stood for the Armistead motion.

Terrell, Green, McChesney, Armistead, Hinkins, Morgan, Armistead, the motion: Mayor Woodward, Chambers, Gilpin, Hatcher, Key, and Pierce.

Mr. Chambers, arguing against the Armistead motion, spoke most intelligently of the advantages of the proposed plan, which the motion would have killed.

"First," said Mr. Chambers, "we should at least try out the plan of co-education, which has been adopted by many of the leading educational institutions of the country. We send our boys and girls to school together to college; they are adult together; we can't see why we should separate them in the three or four years of high school at the high school, between the co-educational grammar schools and the co-educational universities."

ELIMINATION CONSTRUCTION. "We want a building and combine the business schools as immediate and tangible will be the removal of the department will eliminate co-education next year at the Boys' High school. It will give us Crew Street to use as a grammar school, and enable us to abandon Bell Street to the negroes, who are so badly in need of another school."

President Gilpin stated that the city moving rapidly toward the idea of one university high school, and that one is the time to set that plan on a solid basis.

On motion of Mayor Woodward, seconded by Mr. Chambers, the following committee was appointed to investigate sites for the proposed joint school: Gilpin, Hatcher, Green, Hinkins, and Landon.

M. L. Throuwer has offered to rent the city the building at the corner of South Pryor and Mitchell streets and T. J. Day has offered to erect the city a building on Pryor street. The committee is authorized to investigate these and any other plans and to report upon them.

Present at the board meeting were Mrs. A. T. Wise, principal of the English Commercial High school, and Miss Jessie Muse, principal of the Girls' High school. Both stated they are opposed to the plan for co-education in the schools of Atlanta.

Miss Muse, answering questions, stated that the girls of the south developed very young, and that she considered it unwise for them to be thrown with the boys.

The board elected W. L. Wootch, superintendent of buildings and repairs, combining the heating and repairing departments under him. His salary was fixed at $150 per month.

Mrs. W. P. H. Johnson, former principal of the Edgewood Avenue school, and Miss Ada Brooks and Miss Martin Andrews were placed on the position list. Miss Nellie McCall was elected a teacher in the grammar schools.

On motion of Mr. Chambers the board requested the building inspector to erect the Milton avenue, four grades, and the Lucile avenue, six grades, schools.

Discussion brought out the fact that the contractors who bid on the two projects had refused to sign contracts satisfactory to the building committee.

This is only one of many patriotic funds raised in Great Britain, but is the greatest apart from the Red Cross. So far $1,825,000 have been distributed for the additional relief of families of soldiers and sailors in cases of civil distress, which have been much less than at one time feared. Widows and orphans have come in for substantial aid as well as married and blinded soldiers.

The administration of the fund has so far cost a little over $100,000.

Moultrie was selected as the next meeting place for this organization. Parties took excursions into the mountains. They left here this morning to spend the day at Tallulah Falls.

COLUMBUS BAR WANTS TO ABOLISH J. P. COURTS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) COLUMBUS, Ga., June 19.—It now appears that there will be little opposition to the movement to abolish the justice courts in Columbus. Following the action of members of the Columbus bar in determining to ask the legislature to enact a local bill providing for change, many citizens, including three of the local justices, have gone on record as favoring the abolition of the old system. Justices Huling and Gaummon have publicly announced their intention to work for the proposed change, and the former has issued a statement, in which he declares that the fee system is the root of the evil, and he urges that fees go with the justice offices.

BECKER MAY APPEAL TO WHITMAN FOR CLEMENCY

Lawyer Confers With Condemned Man, but Makes No Statement

NEW YORK, June 19.—Charles Becker, sentenced to die next month for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was visited today in his cell in Sing Sing's death house by his counsel, Martin T. Manton, of New York. Mr. Manton remained with Becker for an hour discussing, it was inferred, the plan to appeal for clemency to Governor Whitman.

This, it is believed, is virtually Becker's only hope of escaping the electric chair since the court of appeals declined yesterday to grant a reargument on the appeal from his second conviction.

"Nothing to say now, perhaps later," was all Mr. Manton would say after the interview with his client.

Negro Kills Wife Then Goes to See A Man Hanged

QUITMAN, Ga., June 19.—Clarence Mobley, a negro of the Grovesville district, was the most curious of the crowd which gathered last Friday when Alf Gossby, a negro murderer, was hanged in the county jail here.

Within a few hours after the execution news reached the sheriff's office that Mobley had killed his wife several days before the execution. According to this information, he had a hot war with a club and had allowed no one to come near the house. He appeared to have abandoned his wife to come to town when the execution of Gossby took place, and the neighbors took advantage of his absence to investigate, and had found the dead woman.

Officers arrested him and lodged him in jail here to await trial at the November term of court.

Ed Carter Defeats Brother Frank in Challenge Round for Championship at Augusta

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 19.—E. V. Carter, Jr. of Atlanta, once again is the singles champion of the South Atlantic states, and he, together with J. K. Orr of Atlanta, won the doubles championship.

This was the third straight win of Carter in the singles and he thereby becomes the winner of the championship challenge trophy. He also won one of the old trophy, which became the permanent property of Nat Thornton three years ago. Paired with J. K. Orr, Jr., he won the doubles championship twice and to win only once again to become the owner of the doubles trophy.

The cup winners this year have all been decided except the winner of the consolation singles and the mixed doubles, and an effort will be made to finish these two events today.

The cup for the championships as above stated and the cups were also won as follows: Mrs. Ruhland, of Augusta, won the ladies' singles championship cup; Frank Carter, of Atlanta, won the cup for the tournament winner in singles, and Vernon McMillan, also of Atlanta, won the cup for the runner-up of the singles. J. K. Orr, Jr., and E. V. Carter, both of Atlanta, won the championship cup, while Roy Kennedy and Tom Cummings, both Augusta boys, won the cups for the runners-up in the doubles.

and the ladies, especially, are pleased with the manner in which they were treated. It was not necessary to schedule a single match for the mornings, although several were played then by agreement.

The first of yesterday's matches in the men's singles was the final round between Frank Carter and Vernon McMillan, both of Atlanta. The match was close and well played and was won by Carter, 3 sets to 1, by scores 8-2, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2.

After finishing this match, Carter played his brother, Ed Carter, in the challenge match for the championship, but was defeated rather easily in straight sets by scores of 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

Several matches were played in the men's doubles. The first of these, Orr and Carter, the playing through champions won by default from Nixon and Nixon, of Augusta. The final round, which as the champion straight through is also the championship round, was between Carter and Orr vs. L. Kennedy
